Subject: Mr. Mosley - Fraudulent Business/Practices on behalf of Jump Living/RPM Group

Mr. Keegan, Mrs. Keegan, and Mr. Manley:
My name is Adam Campbell, I'm a newly appointed Director on the board (in the wake of Mr. Mosley's removal) at Redline Productions Media Group (RPM Group) – a company in which Jackson Mosley was formerly involved with.

As a matter of record, Mr. Mosley was terminated on November 5th, 2018 from his position as President/CEO, and removed from the board of directors on November 26th (cooling off period required by our bylaws) due to fraudulent activity involving embezzlement/laundering/identity theft/fraudulent credit (loans and credit cards) to name a few.

It has come to our attention through internal an internal audit that Mr. Mosley has engaged with your company with regard to Jump Living. A company that was fraudulently created via the aforementioned embezzled/laundered funds from RPM Group.

Mr. Mosley has fraudulently created a document claiming that he has Power of Attorney with two of our board members, and created various forms of credit (loans/credit cards/etc..) in order to finance Jump Living/his personal expenses.

We've also discovered that his former associate/landlord was never paid funds for a residence at 84 P St NW, in excess of over $25k. After speaking with that individual, we learned that he created various damages and violations at that property while residing there. (Unauthorized modifications, unlicensed contractors, wiring faults that were deemed fire hazards, fire panel malfunctions, etc.)

As an organization performing audits of past communications/agreements made potentially on our behalf, we found your contact information/agreement and wanted to make you aware of the situation that Mr. Mosley has created from his fraudulent/unauthorized activities.

We have evidence to corroborate this information. as well as being in contact with his former landlord. If you'd like to discuss further – I can be reached through the methods below.

Sorry to bring this information to you during the holidays, but we're attempting to alert any vendor/company that Mr. Mosley has done business with of his long occurring fraudulent activity sooner than later.

Thank you for your time.

Hello Mr. Mosley,

I am contacting you regarding the unemployment claim you filed. I have some questions regarding the reason for your separation.

What reason were you given regarding your separation?

Please provide rebuttals to your employer's statements.

Your employer indicated you were discharged for committing criminal/fraudulent acts on behalf of the company and other board members through falsified documents/conversations through electronic methods of impersonation.

Did you purchase a new phone against the Verizon Business account and report all lines as stolen and transferred the co-founders phone number to the new device to attempt to regain access to digital company assets that had been secured?

Did you activate a Mercury Mastercard under Robert Lamond name?

Information is needed today by 4:00pm.

Thank you,

Antoinette Carter

D.C. Code, Title 51-110(b)(1). D.C. Municipal Regulation, Chapter 7-312.4(e) provides gross misconduct may include dishonesty.

FACTS

The employer indicated the claimant was discharged for committing criminal/fraudulent acts on behalf of the company and other board members. The employer provided proof that the claimant used his co-worker's identities to activate credit cards without their permission, purchased a new phone against the Verizon business account, reported all lines stolen, transferred the Co-Founders phone number to the new device to attempt to regain access to digital company assets that had been secured.
